DESIGN YOUR DREAM WITH

ELEMENTS

BY COZZE

With Cozze Elements, your outdoor kitchen becomes more than just a place to prepare meals – it transforms into a space designed by you, for you.

Named Elements because it's built on the power of combining simple, functional components, this flexible series of modular units allows you to build a kitchen that fits perfectly with your lifestyle and your outdoor space. Whether you're dreaming of a compact setup for cozy dinners or a fully equipped station for hosting guests, Elements grows with your needs.

Each module is crafted with durable materials and timeless Nordic aesthetics, combining clean lines with smart functionality. From grill stations and prep areas to storage and side tables – every element connects seamlessly, allowing over 200 combinations and endless creativity.

This is Danish design without compromise. Explore the possibilities. Create your perfect setup. And make the most of every moment under the open sky.

NEXT-LEVEL PERFORMANCE

QUATTRO 900

For those who dare to grill different
Take your outdoor cooking to the next level with the Quattro 900. Equipped with high-performance infrared burners, it delivers intense, even heat that's perfect for searing.

With four dedicated cooking zones – a fierce steak station, classic grill, authentic pizza oven, and dynamic plancha – the Quattro 900 gives you precision, versatility, and serious firepower.

No compromises. Just pure grilling passion.
